Men's Leadership
Summit
September 22-24, 2010

September 22-24, the Alliance International Ministries team members will hold a Men's Leadership Summit at Skycroft Conference and Retreat Center, near Middletown, Maryland. We invite you to attend. We anticipate men will come from across the United States and a number of other countries. All are in some form of ministry and relate to one of the team members.

This will be our tenth annual summit. These summits are the direct result of a time of prayer the team members had together in 1999. AIM was born in overseas mission trips that we took as a team in the early 1990s. Each of us are involved in serving leaders in our respective spheres of ministry. We rejoice in the release of power that occurs when we work together. As we prayed, we became excited about the possibility of bringing together men we relate to in a retreat atmosphere. We anticipated a similar release of synergistic anointing.

God has indeed met us wonderfully, year after year. We have experienced our Lord's presence in different ways each year. We have witnessed relationships begin and build between men from around the world. Plan now to join us!

AIM team coordinated out of Hagerstown
John Dean, Bill Davidson, Dan Haas, John Guido and Terry King
